Samling and ParkCity donate 500,000 masks to the Ministry of Home Affairs

Kuala Lumpur, April 16 - Samling Group of Companies and ParkCity Group, have donated 500,000 masks to the Ministry of Home Affairs to show their solidarity to the government in combating COVID-19.

Samling Group CEO, Lawrence Chia and ParkCity Group CEO, Datuk Joseph Lau both lauded the government's efforts in announcing stricter regulation for the extension of the Movement Control Order (MCO) for another two weeks from April 15 until April 28, to further curb COVID-19 from spreading which is in line with the World Health Organisation (WHO) directive.

"ParkCity feels it's imperative to do our part and dedicate whatever resources we have to assist the Ministry of Home Affairs for distributing masks to the frontliners such as the Police in helping to combat Covid-19. Our Group is very grateful to the Police for their dedication and sacrifice in helping our country during these trying time," Datuk Joseph Lau explained.

Chia added, "Samling is always looking for ways to relieve shortages of much-needed medical supplies in our hospitals and polyclinics especially in the rural areas of Sabah and Sarawak."
