

Public Statement on Samling Procurement Staff Impersonation

30 July 2025, Miri Sarawak - Samling has been reliably informed that an individual named David Lee approached some third-party machinery suppliers, claiming to represent our procurement department and seeking the purchase of equipment. We have no record of anyone named David Lee representing our procurement team, nor have we authorised any such dealings.

Our valued vendors and partners are encouraged to exercise extreme caution and verify any procurement-related messages claiming to be from Samling. This warning is particularly relevant as we have identified fraudulent business cards being circulated in relation to these activities.

The purported false business cards can be distinguished as follows:

- Incorrect Head Office Address: "Lot 2961Jalan Temenggong Datuk Oyong Lawai Jau." is incorrect. The Samling Group's official address is: "Wisma Samling, Lot 296, Jalan Temenggong Datuk Oyong Lawai Jau, 98000 Miri, Sarawak, Malaysia."
- Misspelled General Enquiry Email: "enquiry@samling.com" is incorrect. The correct contact email is enquiry@samling.com.
- Unauthorized Hong Kong Email Addresses: Samling Group does not use generic email services (such as Hotmail, Gmail, or Yahoo) for official communication and does not intentionally misspell contact information. Specifically, St-Alfajt@hotmail.com is not a legitimate Samling email. Official communications exclusively use the @samling.com domain.

Samling conducts business with integrity and transparency. A police report has been lodged regarding this incident. The Samling Group confirms that there are no affiliations or investment opportunities associated with these fraudulent materials and strongly advises the public not to engage with or respond to such activities.

Please contact us promptly through our verified corporate contacts or formal channels to confirm any requests. We urge you to report any suspicious communications or questionable business cards directly to us and to exercise due diligence by contacting Samling directly at enquiry@samling.com before interacting with anyone claiming to represent Samling through unofficial channels.

To ensure that you are corresponding with an authorised Samling representative, please verify all contact information through our official platforms:
