Food Contribution for the Needy

In the time of adversity, kindness abounds. Samling Group believes in assisting the disadvantaged and vulnerable groups in the community when the need arises. During the MCO in Sarawak from 29 May to 28 June 2021, Samling donated essential food items comprising rice, flour, cooking oil, sugar, biscuits, noodles to the needy in Miri, who are dealing with hardship, especially during this MCO. 520 essential food packs were also delivered to the villagers in need, spanning across 33 villages in Lawas region while another 100 essential food packs were delivered to Long Lamai in Baram region.

The representative of Kampung Long Luping, Puan Dayang Rugu, expresses her gratitude to Samling Group on behalf of the villagers, "Thank you very much to Samling for always helping us when we needed it most, and not forgetting the staff who took a long journey amidst the harsh weather to deliver the foods to us."

Meanwhile, representative of Kampung Pa Kepulu, TK Pured Parir also extended his thanks to Samling Group on behalf of the villagers for its continuous effort throughout the most challenging times since the beginning of MCO. He was touched by Samling Group's gesture for remembering the villagers in these rural small villages. He also hopes that other similar small villages will receive food aid from Samling Group. TK Agung Upai, the representative of Kampung Pa' Puti, Lawas, Sarawak, also extended his gratitude and thanks to Samling Group, "Even though our village is far from the city, Samling has been attentive and generous to us. The staff travelled a long and bumpy journey to deliver foods to us."
